

WETS TAKE FIRST STEP TO ATTACK DRY AMENDMENT

Ask Permission to Sue Federal Authorities to Prevent Enforcement.

NEW JERSEY LIQUOR MEN FILE BRIEF WITH COURT

Says Amendment Interferes With State Police Powers Contrary to Law

Washington, Dec. 16.—Permission to institute original proceedings to have the national prohibition amendment declared unconstitutional and New Jersey and Federal authorities restrained from enforcing it, was asked of the supreme court today by the Retail Liquor Dealers Association of New Jersey. This was the first question as to the validity of the constitutional amendment to reach the supreme court. George W. Tucker of New York, presented the motion together with a printed brief prepared by the association and the first argument as to whether permission to institute the suit will be granted. In addition to enjoining enforcement of the 18th amendment the association also would ask an injunction against enforcement of the Volstead prohibition enforcement act. Defendants named in the proceedings were the state of New Jersey, which refused to ratify the constitutional amendment, Attorney General Palmer, Joseph L. Rodine, United States attorney for New Jersey, and Commissioner of Internal Revenue Daniel C. Roper. The association's brief alleges that the constitutional amendment was an interference with the state police powers, a violation of the fifth constitutional amendment which prohibits the taking of private property without just compensation, that neither congress nor the state legislatures had authority to propose or ratify the amendment and that the amendment was passed by the house and senate by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

FULL CONTROL OF SUGAR IS ASKED

Members of Both Houses Urge Committee to Provide Complete Control of Price and Distribution.

Washington, Dec. 16.—Fearing that the public was threatened with "sky-high" prices for sugar, members of both houses of congress today urged the house agriculture committee to provide for complete government control of prices and distribution. The committee agreed to take formal action today on the proposal to eliminate from the McNary bill the provision repealing the licensing power of the government. At the same time the house interstate commerce committee had before it a bill which would place an embargo on all sugar exports. Purchase of the Cuban crop, advocates of the bill declared, would not relieve the sugar shortage and drastic steps must be taken to protect the consuming public. The McNary bill was passed last week by the senate, and its supporters fear if it is amended it cannot be finally adopted before the holiday recess.

CONTEMPT CASES AGAIN CONTINUED

Indianapolis, Dec. 16.—Charges of contempt of court against 34 officials of the United Mine Workers of America, with one exception, were continued this morning by United States District Judge A. B. Anderson until such a date as it is deemed advisable to bring the cases against the court. The exception is the charge against Alexander Howat, president of the Kansas district of the mine workers who is charged with continued violation of the court's injunction against furtherance of the strike. Attorneys for Howat, who is under $10,000 bond, were instructed to have him appear in court next Monday. The motion for continuance of the charges of contempt was made by Henry Warrum, general counsel for the United Mine Workers, and was granted in by the government. The attorneys took the position that resumption of operation and return to work of miners in compliance with the agreement reached here last week constituted compliance with the court's order to ending the strike. Judge Anderson said he was unwilling to continue the cases indefinitely and indicated that they probably would be called up again within a week or two for a report as to whether the miners were continuing in their obedience of the injunction.

W. W. DAVIS HAS OPERATION TODAY

William W. Davis, president of the Chamber of Commerce, underwent an appendectomy at the City Hospital today for appendicitis. The condition following the operation was reported as good. Mr. Davis, a few days ago suffered an attack of acute appendicitis. He recovered sufficiently to go to the city hospital for examination. It was found that an immediate operation was necessary and it took place this morning. Dr. U. K. Hastings, of Columbus, assisted by Dr. Homer J. Davis and Dr. Lewis Mitchell attended him.

SENATOR'S SON GOES ON TRIAL FOR MURDER

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 16.—Harry New, alleged son of United States Senator Harry A. New, of Indiana, went on trial here today for the murder of Miss Freda Lesser, his fiancée. It was not expected that a jury would be obtained before tomorrow afternoon. New is alleged to have shot and killed Miss Lesser on the night of July 4 in Tinian, a small island in the Pacific. He drove in his automobile to the police station, with the body of the girl beside him and surrendered. A confession to the murder was obtained, the police said. According to a statement given out by the police at the trial, New is alleged to have said he killed the young woman in a fit of rage when she refused to marry him. An autopsy indicated that Miss Lesser was in a delicate condition. New's defense is insanity. The trial is being held before Superior Judge Craig.

RADICALISM IS DEFINED IN BILL

Measure Proposed to Force Deportation of Aliens Who Support Anarchy or Sabotage.

Washington, Dec. 16.—A bill defining radicalism and designed primarily to force the deportation of aliens who support anarchy or sabotage, was introduced today in the house by Representative Johnson. The bill defines radicalism as the teaching of subversion, the overthrow of organized government, the killing of or assault upon any government official or the unlawful damage to or destruction of property, will be liable to arrest and deportation. No act must be proved in order to deport an alien who is guilty of radicalism. The bill provides that more membership in or affiliation with radical organizations shall be a deportable offense. Explaining that the purpose of the measure "was to make the letter and intent of the law plain and unmistakable," Representative Johnson introduced the bill and said that under existing law mere membership in the I. W. W. did not constitute grounds for arrest and deportation.

POLICEMAN KILLS THUG ANOTHER IS CAPTURED

Cleveland, Dec. 16.—Armed thugs scored two more victims early today and in one of the attacks a robber was killed in a revolver duel with a patrolman. The bandit victims were: John Vanikas, 22, restaurant keeper, shot through the neck in the downtown district and is dying. Man believed to be Anton Toplak, found probably fatally wounded in East Cleveland, had resisted hold-up men. The victim of the policeman's gun, shot while robbing Vanikas, is said to be Arthur Cameron, 22. Three bullets from patrolman William Talcott revolver brought down Cameron as he and a companion were holding up the restaurant keeper. In the exchange of shots Vanikas was shot through the neck by one of the bandits. The second bandit, said to be Christy Orr, 19, was captured.

SUES AUTOIST FOR $10,000 DAMAGES

Charging that she had lost the sight of her right eye as the result of an automobile collision due to the carelessness of Lorenzo D. Hagerty, Mittle Lening, a Toledo, Ohio, woman, today filed suit in common pleas court for $10,000 damages. The petition states that the plaintiff with four other people were driving on what is known as Broadway, one mile west of Columbus Center, when they saw the Hagerty car approaching. The petition alleges that the Hagerty car pulled to the side of the road, slackened speed to 4 or 5 miles an hour when the Hagerty machine, a 60-horse power Marmon, weighing 4,000 pounds hit their machine. It further states that the Marmon was driven at a rate of 40 miles an hour, carelessly and negligently. In the collision the plaintiff states she had a gash two inches long cut in her forehead, that her right eye was injured so she lost the sight, and that she suffered other injuries. In consequence of this she asks judgment for $10,000.

BOLSHEVISTS CAPTURE SEVERAL RUSS GENERALS

London, Dec. 16.—The Bolsheviks captured Novo Nikolaevsk, on the trans-Siberian railway December 14, according to a Soviet communication received by wireless here today. The statement said over 5,000 prisoners, many guns and several generals of the Kolchak army were taken by the Soviet troops. The Moscow statement record a general advance by the Bolsheviks on all fronts. "The staff of the famous cavalry division of General Mamontov, was captured to the north of Priblud, east of Kiev, and numbers of prisoners were taken in other sections, the message asserts. General Denikine's communique, received today, admitted a retirement by his troops in the region of Kurik and also in the Don and Kharkov districts. STEAL STATE'S DOOZE. Charleston, W. Va., Dec. 16.—Seven hundred pints of whiskey were stolen last night from the West Virginia Capitol here. The whiskey had been confiscated by the state prohibition department, and was stored in lockers in the state house until legal disposition could be made of it.

BANK ROBBERS GET OVER $50,000 LOOT FROM JOHNSTOWN VAULT

BURN WAY INTO STRONG-BOX WITH ACETYLENE TORCH—PART OF LOOT INCLUDES $40,000 COLLECTION OF RARE COINS OWNED BY CONGRESSMAN ASHBROOK.

Bank robbers, who used an acetylene outfit at Johnstown shortly after midnight Tuesday, entered the Citizens' bank, secured $8,000 in cash, a number of liberty bonds, Congressman W. A. Ashbrook's collection of old coins which is valued at $40,000, and carried away a quantity of solid silver tableware owned by the congressman and his nephew, W. A. Ashbrook, Jr. The thieves bound and gagged Cash Brush, lunch room proprietor, who was on his way home from the Eagle lodge room when he came upon the lookout posted in front of the bank. Police Chief Sheridan, of Newark, who investigated the robbery early Tuesday, declared it to be the work of professionals. He pronounced it the most job of safe cracking which has yet been done in the county. Resorting to the use of the more modern method of cutting through the strong box with an oxy-acetylene flame, the robbers worked quietly and effectively, making a clean getaway. The chief said he was told that the robbers got $8,000 in cash. The number in the party is not known definitely. Brush, who was an unwilling member of the party for a while, was unable to furnish even a slight description of the men. Some of them kept behind him while the features of the others were dimly outlined in the semi-darkness of the bank. After cutting their way through the door of the vault which protects the heavy safe, the robbers made their way to the rear of the safe, and with the acetylene flame, cut a hole through the rear panel, making no effort at the door of the safe itself. Apparently thoroughly familiar with the arrangement of the safe, the men knew best just where to work for the hole was cut at a point where the cash and other valuables were easily reached. At 1:30 this morning Brush left the Eagle lodge rooms and started for home. Just as he turned the corner where the bank is located he heard the command, "hands up," and a further admonition to not look or he would be shot. The sage further advised him "and I'll shoot only once." Brush obeyed instructions and was walked into the bank where two other men first blindfolded him and asked him if he had any money. The robbers searched his pockets and found some checks which they inspected and placed back in the pocket. They took his change and remarked, "why he hasn't anything," and returned the silver. They gagged him and then bound his legs and arms and placed him on the floor.

OHIO INDUSTRIES EVADE INSURANCE ACT PRICE SAYS

Price's amendment would require employees to give bond sufficient to pay any compensation award or face recidivism. His business might be thrown in hands of a receiver if he defaulted in payment of premium. The tax measure, giving taxing officials inquisitorial powers over bank and building and loan deposits. He declared the provision to be vicious. "I can't imagine the harm it will do business of all character if this provision is left in the bill," he said. The new prohibition enforcement bill will be reported for passage today by the house temperance committee, chairman Crabbe announced. Because of the absence of some dry members, it was said to be probable that the bill will not be voted upon until the latter part of the week and might not go over until after the holiday recess. Former state bank superintendent Phil H. Berg, of Cleveland, called on members of the joint taxation committee in opposition to that feature of the proposed tax measure, giving taxing officials inquisitorial powers over bank and building and loan deposits. He declared the provision to be vicious. "I can't imagine the harm it will do business of all character if this provision is left in the bill," he said.

ATTORNEY GENERAL WANTS LAW AMENDED TO FORCE PLANTS TO QUIT. DECLARES EMPLOYEES ARE LEFT WITHOUT PROTECTION

Columbus, Dec. 16.—Attorney General John C. Price, submitted to the general assembly today drastic amendments to the Ohio workmen's compensation law having for their purpose the compulsory protection of all employees. His amendments would force out of business concerns that do not at all times afford protection to employees. "I am transmitting the proposed amendments to Senator Frank E. Whittemore, Price points out that since January 1, his department has collected between $80,000 and $90,000 in delinquent premiums and calls attention to the fact that while these concerns were without protection. "It is generally supposed," says Price, "that the workmen of Ohio are assured compensation for injuries sustained in the course of their employment under the law as it stands. This is by no means the case, as has been proven by the ad experience of many workmen. "There has been in the past a flagrant disregard of the purpose and spirit of the law 'Price continued' and it is my opinion that this situation should not be allowed to continue for one day longer than is required to find a remedy for it. "A man goes to work in a mine or factory, believing in perfect good faith that he is protected, and it is only after he has had his eyes blown out, lost an arm or a leg, or suffered some other serious injury that he may be brought face to face with the fact that his employer has not complied with the law, a finding of the amount due him is made by the industrial commission and it is referred to the attorney general for collection. It is often found that the employer is not financially responsible. In such cases the consequences fall upon the injured workman and those dependent upon him."

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS WILL NOT AFFECT THOSE OBEYING PRESENT LAW.

Price's amendment would require employees to give bond sufficient to pay any compensation award or face recidivism. His business might be thrown in hands of a receiver if he defaulted in payment of premium. The tax measure, giving taxing officials inquisitorial powers over bank and building and loan deposits. NAMED TO DIRECT PROSECUTION OF FOOD PROFITEERS

Howard Pigg recently was named food administrator to assist Attorney General Palmer by taking charge of the prosecution of food profiteers. City Engineer C. H. Wells reported that the storm and sanitary sewer for the Mt. Vernon road between Charles street and the north end of the corporation line, Channell street from the Mt. Vernon road to the North Fork of the Licking river, and Hudson avenue from Channell to Smith street, would cost a total of $21,433.05. The report was received and filed. Engineer Wells reported that he had prepared plans for the paving and curbing of the above streets with the exception that the paving will only be laid in Channell street from the Mt. Vernon road to the L. & O. railway tracks. His estimate of the total cost was $14,407.40, the city's share to be $3,972.29. A petition was presented signed by James E. Jones and 40 other firms and property owners of Church street, asking that thoroughfare be repaired between Fourth and Third streets. Messrs. Clarence Jones and Harry Davis of the Licking creamery were present and addressed the members of council on the subject. The matter was referred to Service Director Will (Continued on Page 2, Col. 1)

COUNCIL MAKES WAY TO IMPROVE MT. VERNON ROAD

Initial Legislation Offered To Pave Street To Corporation Line.

Will Connect Paving With NEW PIKE NORTH TO UTICA

Other Improvements Proposed In Legislation Offered in Council.

Legislation which will lead to the paving of the Mt. Vernon road from Charles street to the north end of the corporation line, Channell street from the Mt. Vernon road to the B. & O. railroad tracks and Hudson avenue from Channell to Smith street was started last night at the regular meeting of the city council. Legislation was done regarding the mausoleum project, the representatives of the interested companies being given two more weeks in which to make a further proposition to the council, and that body adjourned to meet again in two weeks from last evening, Dec. 29th. A communication from Mayor H. A. Atherton was read in which he disapproved of a section of a resolution adopted at a last meeting of council establishing the new municipal court in the present mayor's suite. He recommended in his communication that the present mayor's court be partitioned so that it would provide a room for the municipal judge, clerk and witness rooms and the council chamber could be used as a court room. The communication was received and filed. Auditor Dodd informed council that he had prepared a statement of the city's finances which would be filed with the clerk of council and which showed that there would be a total deficiency at the end of the year estimated at $3,716.61, in addition to the surplus of $15,700 and last year an excess at the close of the year's business of $23,881. City Engineer C. H. Wells reported that the storm and sanitary sewer for the Mt. Vernon road between Charles street and the north end of the corporation line, Channell street from the Mt. LIQUOR INTERESTS MAY SUE GOVT. FOR LOSS

New York, Dec. 16.—Lawyers representing large liquor interests in New York intimated today that a civil action against the United States government might be the next step in the fight against prohibition and that compensation for losses estimated at $300,000,000 would be asked. The lawyers asserted that the decision of the supreme court virtually confiscated the liquor held in stock. Local banking circles will be but little affected by the court's decision it was said. Large loans were outstanding on warehouse receipts earlier in the year but nearly all have been liquidated in recent months. The dilemma with which the liquor trade received the new yesterday increased today. So confident were the wets that a favorable decision would be handed down that preparations were complete for delivery of thousands of dollars worth of liquor in short notice. The dealers said it would now be practically impossible to ship the liquor in stock to foreign countries before January 16.

MORE DONATIONS FOR SANTA CLUB

Gifts in Money Amount to $195 But More Is Needed—Toys, Food and Clothing Will Help Too.

Besides the hundreds of toys being donated to the central Christmas committee for the annual Santa Claus visit to Newark poor children, donations are coming in rapidly, though more funds will be needed. Already more than $195 has been made available for the work. Donations of $10 each from the Silent Circle and the IVS, several of the King's Daughters have been announced. Today an announcement was made that a donation of $25 had come from one of the Bible classes of the city to Treasurer R. C. VanVoorhis. The committee received $50 as a result of a recent benefit given in the city and the total club appropriated $100 to be used in the work. Boy Scouts are continuing their activity in soliciting and collecting toys for the committee. A systematic canvass of the city has been made and more than 200 different articles have been collected. Scout Executive K. L. Brown, who is in charge of the headquarters states that all the toys are in remarkably good condition. Those which need repair are being put into a repairable condition by Boy Scouts with mechanical ability. There has been little work of this nature necessary, however. There is still a need for money, toys, food and clothing. A telephone message to Scout headquarters will bring a Boy Scout on the jump after any toys which are not needed any more. These boys also will take any food and clothing which may be donated for the Christmas baskets. Checks to help the cause along may be mailed to R. C. VanVoorhis, treasurer of the committee. Geo. M. Fenberg is general chairman of the committee.

GRAND OFFICER WILL ADDRESS PYTHIANS

Grand Chancellor E. W. Tidd will be at the Castle Hall on East Main street, Thursday evening and will address the Pythians of Licking County. The meeting will be in charge of J. A. Gray, county deputy, who has announced to have Licking county show the largest increase in membership this year of any county in this grand domain. Light refreshments will be served.

MILBURN WAGON PLANT HAS $900,000 BLAZE

Toledo, Dec. 16.—The large east wing of the Milburn Wagon company plant was wrecked by fire, which started at 3:30 a. m. today and burned for eight hours. Officials, in a preliminary estimate, place the loss at $900,000 on building and contents, which included more than 20 electric motors and several hundred automobile bodies. The source of the blaze is undetermined. Firemen with all available apparatus fought the blaze for eight hours, and many fire fighters suffered frostbitten hands and noses. No casualties of great consequence were reported. Because the extensive fire, wing stands well apart from the burned section it was saved. A great crowd surged for hours against the fire lines. About 1,000 men were temporarily thrown out of work. Many of these men lost tools belonging to them. The wrecked portion includes the finishing and assembling departments and the company offices. Announcement has been received here of the marriage at Rockford, Ill., of Miss Gladys Mack, of Pittsburgh and Mr. Tanner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Tanner of West Main street, and has been service man for the Republic Motor car company. His parents and friends here have received no announcement of the marriage.

NEWRK MAN WEDS PITTSBURGH GIRL

Announcement has been received here of the marriage at Rockford, Ill., of Miss Gladys Mack, of Pittsburgh and Mr. Tanner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Tanner of West Main street, and has been service man for the Republic Motor car company. His parents and friends here have received no announcement of the marriage.

SEARCH FOR BODIES

Cleveland, Dec. 16.—Search for the bodies of three men believed to have been burned to death in an all-night fire that destroyed the abandoned DeWitt and Cleveland docks building on the river front was being made by firemen today. The three men were evidently tramps, and were seen to enter the building shortly before the fire started.

BELIEVE FIUME CASE ENDED

Rome, Dec. 16.—Both the Epoca and the Giornale d'Italia express the belief today that an announcement of the solution of the Fiume controversy will be made by Premier Nitti at tomorrow's session of the chamber of deputies.

NEW PLANS FOR RAIL CONTROL ARE SENT TO WILSON

Director Hines Sends Recommendation to White House Today

DETAILS ARE NOT DIVULGED. HINES REFUSES TO TALK

Rail Legislation in Congress May Determine Plan to Be Adopted.

Washington, Dec. 16.—New recommendations from Director General Hines as to the return of the railroads to private control are before President Wilson. Neither Mr. Hines nor White House officials will say what the recommendations are or whether they advocate a departure from the President's announced purpose to return the roads by January 1. Nor has there been any indication as to when the President will issue a proclamation surrendering the roads or announce a change in his plans. Some administration officials believe the fate of railroad legislation in congress will be a determining factor in whatever is done. Many officials think it would be disastrous to surrender the roads without adequate legislation to meet their changed status. Meantime however, preparations are going forward for a railroad administration for turning the roads back in accordance with the announcement by President Wilson in his message to congress last May. Materials ordered on contract are being obtained as far as possible before the first of the new year. Office contracts of the new administration contain a 30-day release clause so they can be given up at any time without great loss. Surrender of the roads would make virtually little difference in actual operation in the opinion of officials as the lines now are being operated by their own employees and except for a shift in reports there would be little change. The legal and accounting divisions of the railroads administration probably will be materially increased when the roads are surrendered to the corporations, but the other divisions will go out of existence quickly, officials said.

RAILROADS EVADE LAWS FOR SAFETY

Chief of Bureau of Safety Charges In Annual Report That 16-Hour Law Is Violated.

Washington, Dec. 16.—Evasion of laws to better the safety of passengers and employees was charged by the railroads of the United States today by W. P. Borland, chief of the bureau of safety of the interstate commerce commission in his annual report. In this case he charges the railroads with evading the 16-hour law, which prohibits train of loaded cars remaining on duty more than 16 hours except in extraordinary circumstances. Mr. Borland's report declared managing officers apparently had given their sanction to evasions, "to such an extent as to defeat the purposes of the law." Railroad companies were said to have paid "comparatively little attention to the maximum requirement of the law" regarding safety appliances. They were said to have contended themselves with the minimum number of orders that 85 per cent of the cars in any train shall be equipped with power brakes, disregarding the maximum requirement that all cars so equipped must be connected and the brakes in operation. Hand-brakes also were alleged to be in use on steeply graded mountain grades, although the law specifies that trains must be controlled by power brakes. On some roads employing the manual block system, it was said, dangerous practices are followed and rules violated to such an extent as to render the block signal system entirely useless.

COAL PRODUCTION IS NEARLY NORMAL AGAIN

Washington, Dec. 16.—Virtually normal conditions in the distribution of coal have been restored. The railroad administration today began delivering all coal as billed, except in some few emergency cases where diversion will be necessary. The order reducing by 25 per cent the amount of coal permitted to be coked also was rescinded.

URGES DEFEAT OF BILL TO REPEAL DRY ACT

Washington, Dec. 16.—An unfavorable report on the bill to repeal the wet prohibition law was ordered today by the house agricultural committee by a vote of 16 to 3. Representatives John T. Ramey, Democrat, Illinois and Volghar Wilson and Ward New York Republicans cast the negative vote.

DISCUSS REPARATION PLANS

Paris, Dec. 16.—German and allied experts met here this afternoon to discuss the mode of reparation to be allowed by the Germans in payment of the sinking of German warships in the Scapa Flow. The conference was called over by Louis Loucheur, representative of the reparation mission.

LEADERS NEEDED FOR BOY SCOUTS

Scout Executive's Report Shows Growth of 259 Per Cent in Six Months in Licking County.

The Newark Council, Boy Scouts of America, held its regular semi-annual meeting at the Parish House of the Trinity Episcopal church last evening. The executive report on the progress of scouting in Newark for the past six months was received. This report shows an increase in membership from 64 to 220 boys, a growth of 259.37%, these boys being divided into eight troops in Newark and one in Granville.

COUNCIL MAKES

(Continued From Page 1) son and that official informed council that he had plans under way to take care of the trouble just as soon as he could secure the necessary brick.

A petition signed by property owners in Anderson Court asked that a sewer be constructed. It was referred to the street committee.

A petition signed by J. Howard Jones and 11 others asked that Merchant street be paved between and Eleventh streets.

The following ordinances were passed after the rules had been suspended and the ordinances given their second and third readings:

By Baker—Fixing the salary of the safety director at $900, that official to also discharge the duties of clerk.

By Keyes, Knauber and Faust—Amending an ordinance which provides for fixing the salary of the city weighmaster at $52 per month.

By Baker—Granting permission to McCoy and Laughlin to install a gas-line tank in North Fourth street, in front of the old Methodist church, tank to have a capacity of not to exceed 500 gallons.

An ordinance by Baker was given its second reading which amends an ordinance fixing the number, salaries and hours of service of the police department, which provides that it be operated on an eight hour basis as a working schedule for the officers and men; that they have 12 days vacation each year on full pay.

The following resolutions were adopted:

By Newark—Declaring it necessary to improve Mt. Vernon road from Charles street to the north corporation Channell street and Channell street from line, Hudson avenue from Smith to the Licking river by constructing drainage, Mt. Vernon road to the North Fork of age and sanitary sewers.

By Newark—Declaring it necessary to improve Mt. Vernon road from Charles street to the north corporation line, Channell street from the Mt. Vernon road to the B. & O. railroad tracks and Hudson avenue from Channell street to Smith street by curbing and paving the roadway.

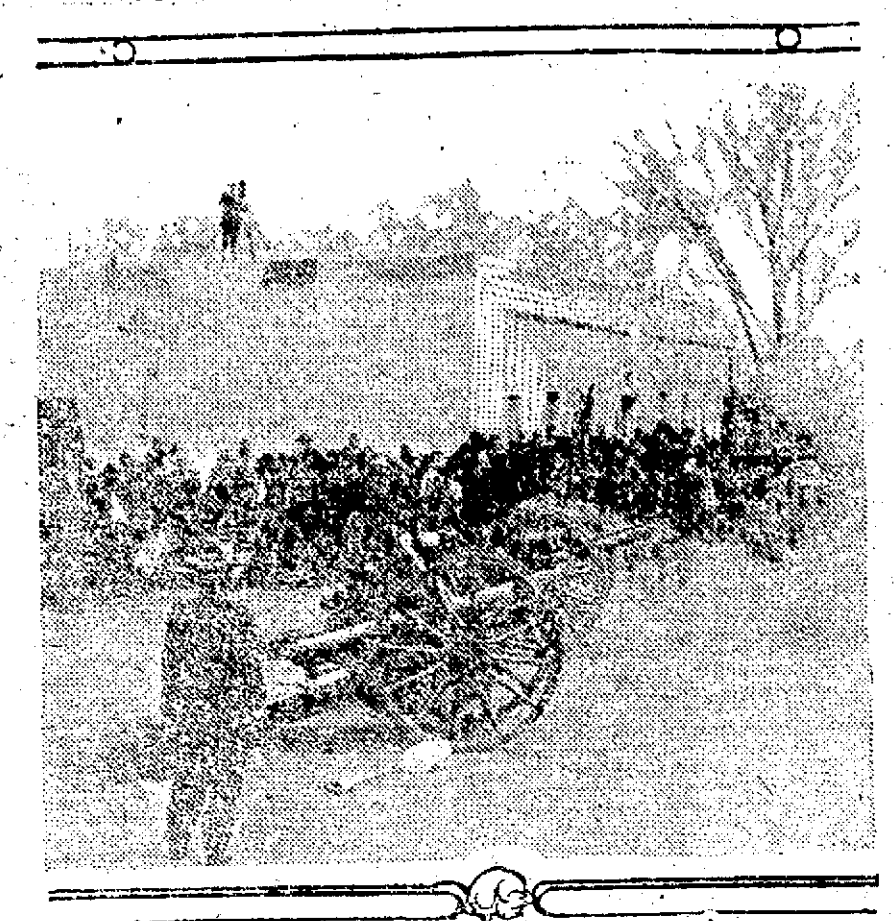

By Keyes—Granting authority to the director of public safety to make use of the Central fire station pumper and necessary men for operating the same for the purpose of flooding skating park at White Athletic field.

By Knauber—Authorizing and directing the city solicitor to confess judgment in the case of Agnes Romine against the city.

By Riggs—Authorizing and directing the city engineer to prepare plans, specifications and estimates for the improvement of Merchant street between Tenth and Thirteenth streets by paving the roadway.

By Riggs—Authorizing and directing the city engineer to prepare plans, specifications and estimates for the construction of a sewer in the first alley north of Church street running east.

VILLISTAS LOOK REAL WARLIKE HERE, BUT MOVIE MAN ON BUILDING SPOILS IT ALL

Villista force firing field pieces.

It was a regiment of warriors like the above that wiped out the Eighteenth regiment of Carranza's forces at Rancho Espejo to avenge the execution of General Angeles. Only two of the 670 men in the regiment escaped death. When the picture above was taken the Villistas shown assumed their most warlike attitude for the benefit of the movies. A movie operator is perched on the roof of the building.

WANT REPAIRS IN CHURCH STREET

Business Men and Property Owners Declare Business Is Being Diverted By Disreputable Condition of Paving.

Determined to get something in return for the taxes paid on their property, owners of buildings on both sides of Church street between Third and Fourth streets have started a campaign to secure the repair of that street. A committee representing the business men attended the council meeting last night and urged prompt action. The campaign was continued Tuesday.

It is pointed out that the condition of Church street has resulted in traffic diverted to other streets and as a result business houses in the street have suffered. The condition of the street, the men declare, is a menace to health and public safety. Deep ruts result in damage to motor trucks and automobiles while filth collected in these ruts breeds disease.

The men declare that a better service from the street department means a higher valuation of property and as a result an increase in tax returns.

It was declared Tuesday that property owners in Church street desire to build new structures and otherwise improve their property but that the condition of the street does not warrant such an expenditure of money.

Service Director Wilson, it was said, promised to repair the street "if he remained in office." He said in council last night that inability to get brick was delaying the repair work now.

The petition presented to council last night was signed by every property owner and business man on the street.

John Fiske, Linguist.

How many college undergraduates of today can rival the linguistic attainments of John Fiske when he was a student at Harvard? John Spencer Clark, in his life of Fiske, quotes the following passage from a letter that Fiske wrote to Miss Abbie Morgan Brooks, whom he afterwards married: "I can't talk in any language but my own; but I read in German, French, Spanish, Italian, Portuguese, Latin, Greek and Anglo-Saxon. Then, with hard study, I can decipher sentence by sentence Dutch, Danish, Swedish, Hebrew, Chaldean and Sanskrit; and there are some few I have dipped into without doing much, either because they have little literature or because I have no time for them—Zend, Gothic, Wallachian and Provençal. Persian and Arabic I long to know, but I despair of ever having the time to learn them; there is so much to be done in other things. Before long anatomy, physiology and kindred sciences will engross me, and I am afraid I shall have to bid a last farewell to philology."—Youth's Companion.

A Good Reason.

The old man was applying at the eye hospital for some spectacles, and the doctor was making a test of his eyes. A card was fixed on the wall a little distance away from where the old man was sitting and the doctor asked him: "Can you read that, my man?" "No, sir," said the old man, "I can't." The doctor told him to go nearer. "Well, can you read it now?" Again the old man replied: "No, sir." The doctor angrily pulled him forward till his nose almost touched the placard. "Well can you read it now?" "No, sir," said the old man sadly, shaking his head. "You see, sir, I never learnt to read!"

Skilled in Confectionery.

The Chinese are very skillful in making confectionery. They are able to empty an orange of its pulp entirely and then fill it up with fruit jelly without one being able to find the smallest cut in the rind or even a tiny hole. Indeed, they even empty an egg in this manner and fill it with a sort of almond nougat without one being able to find the slightest break or inclusion in the shell.

PLAN INSTRUCTION FOR NURSE CLASSES

Mrs. J. Henry Miller has returned from Columbus where last week she served on the board of examiners for nurses. There were 300 nurse applicants for state registration and there are now over 5000 nurses registered in Ohio. The medical board which controls the board of nurses is planning to use the registration fees to pay traveling expenses and part of the salaries of instructors. This plan, it is pointed out, would be a great advantage to small hospitals. The nurse examining committee also form a standard curriculum for all training schools of the state.

EVERY DAY AT NOON THIS MAN AND HIS LITTLE GIRL PRAY FOR WORLD

REV. FREDERICK NEVE

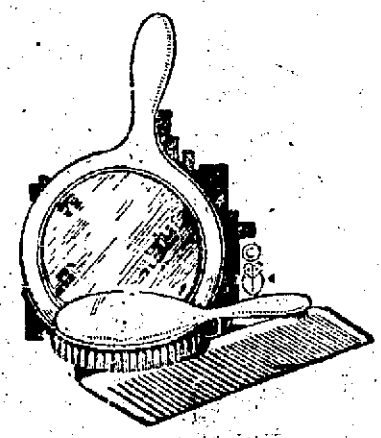

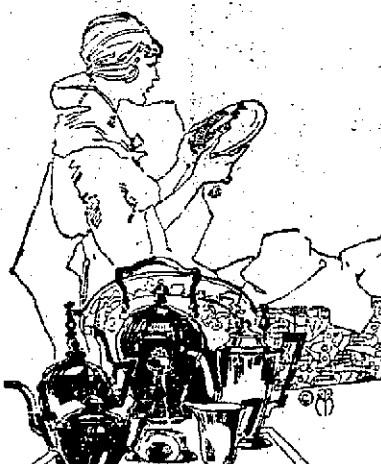

Individual prayers are apt to be rather selfish. Most grown ups are not above asking for success in business, good health, hats, dresses, and even plain cash.

But up in a tiny spot in the fastness of the mountains of Virginia, a man and his little daughter know perfectly well that all sorts of prayers from all sorts of peoples, for the salvation of the world, are being offered up continually, but that doesn't discourage them from making their particular and individual request, every day, at high noon. And there, they pray, too, for their mountain friends, for other missions in far off corners of the earth, and for a new and beautiful world in which we may all live in peace and happiness.

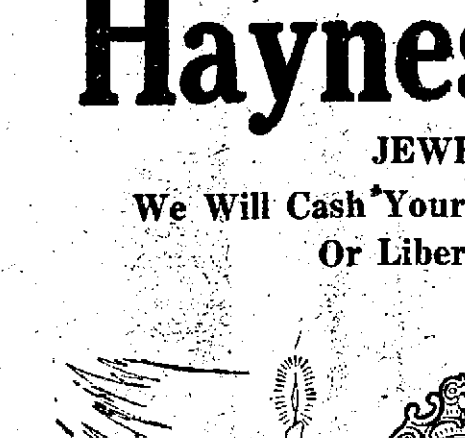

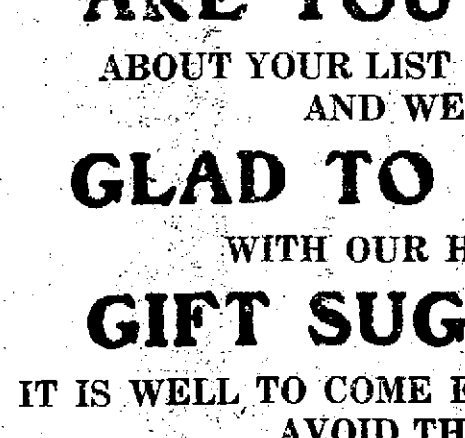

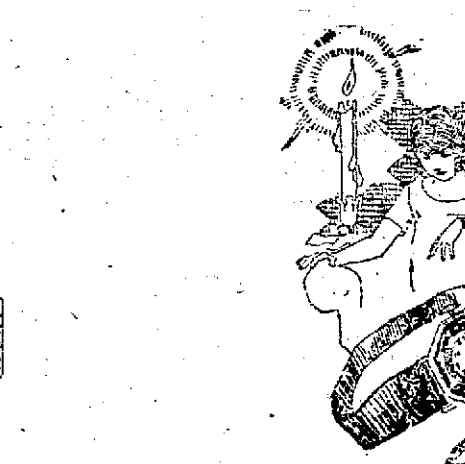

And so from this little mountain mission came aid to the Nation Wide

Idea That the Gnomes Have Disappeared is Declared to Be Altogether Erroneous

There still are fairies in Ireland, declared the Ulster Folklore, which explains by saying: "Too many, perhaps, this statement will be really news. Of course, anyone who has never taken any interest in the matter at all knows that in the days gone by there were plenty of them from one end of the green isle to the other—fairies, not their old haunts, the thorn bushes, their raths, forts, coyses and souterrains still to be found in every corner of Ireland just as they have existed since time out of mind."

But it has been the general belief that the fairies themselves long ago, in one fashion or another, had forsaken or been driven from their secret places, the last being placed at as modern a period as the middle of the nineteenth century—the flight of the big wind, in fact when they were all supposed to have been blown into the sea with the exception of a few that landed in Scotland.

The error of that belief, however, has been scientifically ascertained in a series of investigations pursued by Miss Elizabeth Andrews, F. R. A. L., for a decade or so.

"The belief is general," Miss Andrews says, "that these little people were at one time very numerous throughout the country, but have now disappeared from many of their former haunts. At Ballynahinch I was told they had been blown away 50 years ago by a great storm, and the caretaker at Killybeg said they had gone to Scotland. They are, however, supposed still to inhabit the more remote parts of the country, and the old people have many stories of fairy visitors and of what happened in their own youth and in the time of their fathers and grandfathers."

WAS PIONEER IN WIRELESS

James Bowman Lindsay, Scottish Engineer, Has Not Been Given the Credit He Deserves.

Little is heard about James Bowman Lindsay, and much about wireless telegraphy, yet the career of the one and the history of the other are inseparable, says the Christian Science Monitor. Upwards of sixty years ago Bowman Lindsay operated a system across the River Tay, a distance of one and a half miles, just above the bridge—the construction of which ranks as one of the most notable feats in engineering. His efforts failed to attract attention at the time, however, because of his retiring disposition, but the history of electrical research records few names more deserving of respect than his. He was a pioneer in the application of electricity for heating and lighting purposes and bespoke a great future for it.

Appropos of Bowman Lindsay, as he was familiarly known, it is interesting to note that his energies were not wholly directed to the advancement of the mechanical arts. He was a linguist and as such started out to translate the Bible into many different languages. Seven years' labor was expended on the task, and the work was far from being finished when it had to be abandoned. The Bible, in incomplete form, may still be seen in the Albert Institute, Dundee, Scotland. It lies open in a glass case and shows that the method employed was to divide the book into the requisite number of columns and in each column place the words in English and their equivalent in each language into which they were translated.

Dangerous Counterfeit.
The most expert means of counterfeiting American greenbacks has been discovered by the state police in the Adirondacks lumber camps, where $20, $50 and $100 notes were being duplicated. Banking experts have pronounced them the most clever counterfeits in existence.

The information now in the hands of the state police is to be turned over to the United States department of justice. The secret of the device is a machine which is capable of splitting the thin note paper, on which American notes are engraved and permitting the face and back of the note to be stripped from each other. Waxed paper is then laid over each half of the note and a solution applied to transfer enough of the original ink to the waxed paper to make an exact duplicate of the note. The waxed sections to which the ink has been transferred are then pasted to the opposite half of the good note and in this way two bank notes exactly alike are produced.

Malines Carillons Busy.
The carillons of Malines have never been heard so much and to such splendid effect as of late. The truth is that Malines has undertaken to get together a sufficient sum of money with which to present to St. Quentin a new carillon, the Germans having seized the bells of the French town. So every carillon of Malines has been ringing and pealing. There have been carillon concerts, one of the performers on the bells of the cathedral of St. Rombaut being the bell ringer of St. Quentin himself. The hymn which he played embodied the motifs of the "Marseillaise" and the "Brahmconne."

All Busy.
"What's your wife doing?"
"Preserving watermelon rind."
"So?"
"And the kids are enthusiastically supplying her with the material."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

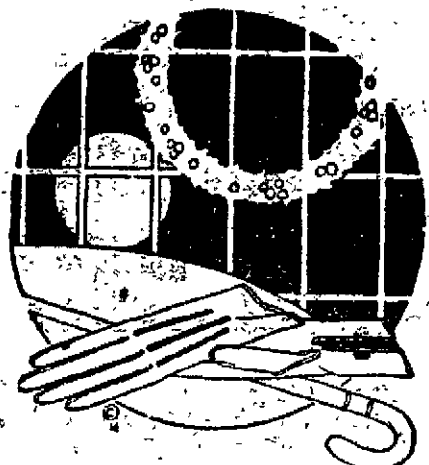

Show us a man who would rather be right than President!—Washington Post.

VOCATIONAL TRAINING.

A few years ago anyone who advocated "vocational" training in schools was considered a faddist. The majority of people did not then know what the word meant. In a few schools where they set up forges and other simple equipment, the idea was laughed to scorn by so-called "practical people."

Yet this idea of vocational training is rapidly spreading over the country. Young men are taking courses in such trades as automobile repairing, plumbing, machinists' work, today making, electricity, drafting, pattern making, etc. Young women are studying domestic science, millinery, dressmaking and other crafts. In the country towns the young people study agricultural methods.

Some people say it is not the business of the schools to teach these trades, which they learn when they begin to work. Yet those that have this training will succeed so much better, that towns not having these facilities will be forced to add them, unless they want their standard to fall behind.

The young men without trade education is likely to have to do one thing over and over again, so he never gets a general knowledge of his trade. The one with the vocational education knows his work thoroughly, he has higher standards, and he knows how to accomplish the most in the least time.

Business interests are strongly in favor of this form of school work. They know it will add to their taxes. But it will give them more efficient producers and help them build up bigger businesses.

The town or state that provides agricultural instructions in rural schools will turn out more successful farmers than the one that doesn't. A state that lags behind blocks the way to its own agricultural progress.

THE CHRISTMAS TREES.

Matter of fact, economists used to protest against the use of Christmas trees, as destructive of young forest resources. They advise the land owner against selling for a few cents the little sapling that one day would make a great forest. But many forestry experts feel that woodland growth can be so handled that the cutting of the little Christmas trees will do no harm to timber resources.

The New York College of Forestry says that proper forest treatment in its own state will provide enough of these little trees. If this most thickly settled community can raise its own Christmas foliage without economic loss, the rest of the country surely can.

Christmas does not seem complete without the little tree. It brings the beauty of wild life into the winter home. It suggests that hope and courage and opportunity like evergreen foliage always survive the blasts of storm and trial.

The capitalist's indignation against his striking workpeople is somewhat mitigated, when he finds he can pass on their demands to the public with a little additional profit.

Anyway the "wets" will be permitted to have intoxicating music.

Married Strangers

XXVI.—Keitha Plays a New Card.

"Keitha, you are a thoroughbred," Bennett addressed her across the breakfast table the morning after the dinner party at Martine's.

When he had returned to the apartment the evening before, Keitha had already retired, and her greeting when he entered the sitting room that morning had been as charmingly pleasant and poised as ever.

Now she raised her brows interrogatively, her eyes on the coffee she was pouring from the silver container.

"Why this maternal praise?" she queried lightly.

"You know why? Don't try to quibble. Of course you don't believe one word of that story about selling Fairroll bonds. I know you. I was entertaining Madge and only Madge, but I'll say you filled me with admiration for the way you carried off the situation."

"What else was there to do?" Keitha shrugged. "No need to spoil two dinner parties because of my plans were wrong. But don't you think it was rather absurd to misrepresent facts to me in the first place? Why didn't you tell me in that note that you had another engagement, instead of pleading business?"

Bennett regarded her curiously. "Of course you don't really mean that?"

"Of course I do," insisted Keitha warmly. "It's a theory of mine that marriage is a bore sometimes, purely because two people try not to be human. Just because you're married doesn't mean that you haven't likes and dislikes, the desire to have pleasant friends and gay parties, does it?"

Bennett was frankly staring. "This from Madge?" he murmured weakly. "Why, Keitha, I thought you were the most devoted of souls."

Keitha smiled into her coffee cup.

"So do most other people. But we all have our secret theories on the reorganizing of the universe, even if we've not the courage to carry them through—don't you think so?"

Bennett passed his hand over his brow.

"I'll never understand you, Keitha." "Don't try, just—Keitha leaned provocatively across the table, her eyes flashing mischief, "Just—love me."

Bennett's chair crashed over as he sprang to his feet. There was a little laugh from Keitha and the flash of chiffon draperies as the door of her room banged behind her.

Bennett returned to his breakfast, but after a minute he pushed aside his plate impatiently, and lighting a cigarette, sat staring down into the garden, his brows knit in thought.

It was so that Keitha found him when she entered, clad in a street gown. A little smile that was tinged with malice hovered round her eyes.

"Going to motor me down this morning, or must I walk as I did before I had a devoted husband?" she queried lightly.

Bennett sprang up quickly. "At your service," he said with a bow then coming close to her, and trying to force her securely veiled glance.

"Keitha what did you mean?" Keitha, intent on the clasps of her gloves, gave him attention for a fleeting second.

"But what you said before you made such a precipitate exit?"

"Oh that," Keitha shrugged. "That was an experiment. I was curious to see how you'd react to such a suggestion. Each man has accepted it so differently."

"COST PLUS" SYSTEM.

Many people feel that a principal reason for the prevailing high prices have been the so-called "cost plus" system, prevailing in so much of the government work through the war period.

The cost plus system was established to meet the objections of those who felt contractors would make too much money if government work was let to the lowest bidder. It seemed to theoretical people a sound arrangement, to give the manufacturers a certain fixed percentage over and above their costs.

If contractors were to have 10 per cent on costs of $1,000,000, they would make $100,000 on this basis. If these costs were boosted to $2,000,000, they would make $200,000. Consequently it was for their interest to grant every request for advance wages, and then suggest that the wage earners could have some more. It was for their interest to pay the very highest prices for material. The more money they paid, the more money they made. So the theory that was going to check dishonesty, cost the American people very heavily.

This plan was used widely enough as to lead great numbers of people to feel that money was very abundant and very cheap, and that hard work was no longer needful. The country is now getting the result of this juggling. This spirit can be seen in the lower production of many industries.

As a general rule, with exceptions, the contract system with competitive bidding is the best method for getting large jobs of public work done. There is of course danger of collusive bidding and corrupt understandings. But with honest public officials and supervision by trained experts, competitive bidding puts both employers and workers on their mettle and maintains standards of production.

GARFIELD RESIGNS.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer)

It was a thankless task Harry A. Garfield accepted when the president asked him to become national fuel administrator. It was inevitable that he would make more enemies than friends, and complaints would outnumber commendations.

Most Americans will agree that Garfield did his work well, on the whole. Some of the criticisms of two years ago were justified. At times the administrator acted without seeming to have weighed the consequences. But much of this is now forgotten and the public has a real appreciation of Garfield's administration of the fuel office.

Dr. Garfield now resigns, because, it is said, he disapproves of the basis of settlement with the striking miners and because he feels that the administration, in negotiating the settlement, did not give him sufficient hearing. How accurate this conjecture may be will appear when the letter of resignation is made public. Certainly something is said in support of the Garfield view that the public is likely to get the worst of the bargain from the Indianapolis settlement.

On the other hand, Garfield was apparently making no progress toward getting the mines reopened. A continuation of his policy meant a continued deadlock, with the letter of resignation made public. The soundness of Garfield's view that the public is likely to get the worst of the bargain from the Indianapolis settlement remains to be demonstrated.

As to the soundness of the result finally much will depend on the character of the commission to be named in pursuance of the agreement with the miners. The greatest care should be exercised to see that the public's paramount interests in the controversy are fully protected at every point. This is the best way to meet the Garfield objections to the plan of settlement.

Enforced idleness finds the devil's workshop operating at full capacity. Detroit News.

CHANCE TO BEAT BERGER.

(Ohio State Journal)

If the non-Socialist votes in the Fifth District of Wisconsin, are cast at the election December 19 it will be possible to defeat Victor Berger and prevent his re-election to congress. It has been assumed by many that, because Berger received 13,172 votes at the primary, while his fusion opponent, J. B. Bodenshtab, received only 9,278, Berger was assured of victory at the election. The fact that only about one-half the votes of the district were cast at the primary seems to have been overlooked. There was no special and urgent reason why all the non-Socialists should hurry to the primary and vote for Bodenshtab because his nomination was assured. All the non-Socialist organizations in the district had entered their support for him and he was certain to win.

In the congressional election of 1918, when Berger was elected, he received 17,822 votes, while all other candidates received 22,354. If all the men who were reopposed to Socialism in 1918 are still opposed to it and will vote, there are quite enough votes in the district to compel Berger to remain at home and permit one whose Americanism is not in question to be sent to congress to represent that district. The Socialist vote at the primary in not finally conclusive. There remains an opportunity to keep the Fifth District from making itself alien. It can be made an American district if the voters will do their duty.

Spirit of the Press

Frick's Benefactions.

Mr. Frick's magnificent public bequests surprised everybody, not in his confidence, by their amount. But they also compel admiration for their largeness of conception. Having himself served as a college trustee, Mr. Frick was aware of the hampering conditions too often attached to gifts to universities. The large sums which he willed to Princeton and Harvard appear to be almost entirely free from such limitations on their use. And his provisions for the control and development of his great art collection in New York equally bespeak a mind accustomed to think broadly and far ahead. It is little to say that New York never had a benefaction approaching Mr. Frick's. There is no evidence that he ever attended a school of philanthropy, but its finest teachings are embodied in the terms of his will.—New York Evening Post.

Where Is Sugar Going Now?

On December 31 the Sugar Equalization Board goes out of existence. With it will go all efforts on the part of the government to control prices. On January 1, so far as we can see, the speculator and profiteer can gauge the public to the limit of ability to pay. We wonder just a bit how much sugar there is in this country stored away in anticipation of the contemplated profiteering debauch. And we wonder what the rogues will dare exact per pound—20, 30, 40 cents? Anything is possible unless Congress—which has thus far refused to do so—shall extend the life of the board and invest it with real powers.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Changing the Subject.

"We are going to investigate the Geodetic survey. What do you know about it?" "Nominer Senator. I don't even know what geodetic means." "Neither do I, and that will be awkward. We'll investigate something else."—Louisville Courier Journal.

H. Mazy company, dry goods merchant, writes:
"I have just been reading about the offer of the Pharis Tire and Rubber company of their 8 per cent. preferred stock. I believe this is an excellent idea along the right line. It means that Newark people shall develop their own home town. It is an excellent concern that is abundantly capitalized to protect all its stockholders, and I believe the day will come when we shall see it a large concern. This 8 per cent on this home industry ought to be very attractive to Newark people, as it is safe, sound and offers a good rate to investors. It is seldom a person gets an offer of getting an 8 per cent stock in as well organized concern as this, and I wish the movement success."

Frank L. Beggs, manufacturing chemist and head of The Styron-Beggs company of Newark, writes:
"I am very glad, indeed, to endorse the sale of $250,000 worth of 8 per cent preferred stock offered by The Pharis Tire and Rubber company. It is, in my opinion, an excellent opportunity for investors, and if our citizens would make their investments in propositions of this character, it would not only mean a healthy growth of the city from within, but would safeguard many investments that are lost by looking for 'get-rich-quick' profits. The financial statement shows that the management has been excellent. The commodity manufactured is in universal demand. The outlook for future business is splendid, and so far as industrial stocks go, I do not know of a better opportunity."

WAS BADLY RUN-DOWN FROM PNEUMONIA

Mrs. Washburn quickly regained her strength and flesh.

"I had grippe, followed by pneumonia. It left me with a terrible soreness in my chest, constant pain in my throat and so weak and nervous I could neither eat nor sleep. I had a chill every morning."
"One day a young man told me how Milks Emulsion had got him out of bed and built him up after he had been reduced to a skeleton and given up by the doctors. So I tried it. I have gained in strength, appetite and flesh, sleep better than I have for years, am doing all my own work again and feel like a new person."
"The beauty about Milks Emulsion is that it doesn't wear out like most things, and is so pleasant to take. It is a food as well as a medicine and builds up the blood and tissues. It surely put new blood in my veins and I have the healthiest color I ever had."—Mrs. M. Washburn, El Centro, Cal.
It costs nothing to try Milks Emulsion. It will build you up more quickly, more surely than anything else.
Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, promotes appetite and puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are usually relieved in one day.
This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream.
No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions. If it not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.

Beauty Answers By MADAME MARES

MISS F. K. L.—making the pores smaller has a direct and tremendous result in the elimination of wrinkles. The reason for this is that when the pores become smaller the texture of the skin becomes finer, and the tissues are thereby braced up. Coarse skins are usually full of wrinkles. Just try this method once and you will realize that you have found a powerful wrinkle secret. Get a two-ounce package of "Beauty Answers" (which is the name of the cream) and mix this powder with one tablespoonful of glycerine in a half pint of water. Apply this cream very freely on the face every day, and you will be astonished to find the difference it will make in your appearance. It removes the thousands of small wrinkles, crows' feet and even the deep wrinkles. Try it.

"BEAUTY"—A glorious head-wash. Yes, here it is, and a wonder, too! Just dissolve a teaspoonful of eggol in half a cup of water, and use as a head-wash. You will be surprised at the remarkable cleanliness of your scalp and the glossiness of your hair, as a result. For twenty-five cents you can get at the drug store enough eggol to last for many weeks.

MISS M. O. N.—A really wonderful way, and the easiest and quickest way to remove superfluous hairs is to dissolve them. This is done by moistening the hairs with sulfur solution, which you can get at any drug store for one dollar. This never leaves a scar or red spot, always works, whether the hair is very thick or downy, and on the most delicate skin. It is the only safe way, and is exceedingly simple and quick.

Ashland, Ky., Dec. 2.—Mrs. William Bullington, 614 Front St., has made such a remarkable recovery from long illness that she tells her experience in the hope that others will be benefited. "For four years," she says, "I suffered with severe pains in the back of my head, causing dizzy spells and attacks of blindness. At these times I hardly knew what I was saying. All treatment seemed hopeless, although I went to many specialists and took serum treatment. When these spells passed off they were followed by violent vomiting. At last I tried Dr. Parker's Treatment for Constipation and Indigestion and since taking two boxes I have been practically free from these spells and can eat everything without ill effects. I am still taking this wonderful treatment and believe it will completely cure me. I recommend it to all."

GERMAN DELEGATION ARRIVES.
Paris, Dec. 16.—A new German delegation arrived in Paris this morning to discuss compensation for the sinking of the German warships in Scapa Flow.

CONVENTION POSTPONED.
Cleveland, Dec. 16.—The convention of the Ohio Association of Building Owners and Managers scheduled to open here today, has been postponed indefinitely, because the fuel situation made it impossible for many of the delegates to attend.

SCHOOL DESTROYED BY FIRE.
Urbana, Dec. 16.—Fire destroyed the South district school building, entailing a loss of $80,000. An over-heated furnace caused the fire.

ATHLETE SHOT BY SOLDIER.
Fostoria, Dec. 16.—Richard Linehart, aged 18, high school star football player, who was crippled in a football game recently, was accidentally shot through both legs yesterday in a clubhouse by Lee Novles, returned soldier, who was showing an apparently unloaded revolver.

HELD FOR $11,000 ROBBERY.
Steuersville, Dec. 16.—Walter Gardner of Wheeling, W. Va., is held in jail here in connection with the theft of $11,000 from an apartment house at Suite, Mont. Jefferson county officials say Gardner admits he and an accomplice got the money.

FIVE BURNED IN EXPLOSION.
Mansfield, Dec. 16.—While J. A. Drimley was passing a jannanning oven in the New Alsted plant, it exploded. He was so badly burned that he cannot recover. Four other employees were burned in the explosion.

EMPLOYEES GET BONUS.
Columbus, Dec. 16.—According to a resolution of the directors of the New First National bank, and in recognition of the faithful services of the employees and the high cost of living the bank yesterday paid each employee an additional salary equal to 12 per cent of the amount of his or her salary.

Beating the Train.
"Now, Thomas," said the foreman of the construction gang to a green hand who had just been put on the job, "keep your eyes open. When you see a train coming throw down your tools and jump off the track. Run like blazes!" "Sure!" said Thomas, and began to swing his pick. In a few minutes the Empire State Express came whirling along. Thomas threw down his pick and started up the track ahead of the train as fast as he could. The train overtook him and tossed him into a ditch. Badly shaken up, he was taken to the hospital, where the foreman visited him. "You blithering idiot!" said the foreman, "didn't I tell you to take care and get out of the way? Why didn't you run up the side of the hill?" "Up the side of the hill, is it, so?" said Thomas through the bandages on his face. "Up the side of the hill? By the powers, I can't bate it on the level, let alone runnin' up hill."

TOLEDO PLANT BURNS.

Toledo, Dec. 16.—The main plant of the Millburn wagon company was destroyed by fire here early today. The loss is estimated at more than $1,000,000 including the building and a large stock. The blaze broke out in the paint shop and soon the entire building, which was an old one, was swept by fire. Street car service and trains on the New York Central line to Detroit were delayed when wreckage piled up on the tracks. Firemen fought the blaze in a below zero temperature.

HOBLITZEL GETS JOB.

HIGH SCHOOL DEBATES IN SECOND CONTEST

The second tryout for the Triangle Debate will be held at the high school Wednesday afternoon after school. All but 12 will be eliminated at this tryout. There were no eliminations at the tryout Friday, it being more in the nature of a practice.

The final tryout, when the team will be chosen, is to be held in the high school auditorium Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. In this tryout 12 speakers will contend for the eight positions on the two teams. There will be three judges from the high school and two from outside the high school.

Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hurry

For real effectiveness, this old home-made remedy has no equal. Easily and cheaply prepared.

You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Anyone who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It takes but a moment to prepare, and really there is nothing better for coughs. Into a pint bottle, put 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup instead of sugar syrup. Either way, the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps a person healthy, and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness, and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, the most reliable remedy for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything less. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., E. Wayne, Ind.

MOTHER SAVES LIVES OF FIVE CHILDREN IN FIRE

Mansfield, Dec. 16.—With flames crackling about her, the stairway leading to the first floor a mass of flames Mrs. Dan Pearson early yesterday collected her five children about her, and, one by one, tossed them from the second-story window of their home to her husband, who had leaped from the burning house and who did his best to break their fall.

Robert, aged 8, had his arm fractured, and Mary, aged 12, was badly burned about the hands before she was rescued.

The heroic mother sustained severe burns about the head, shoulders and arms before she leaped from the window.

Pearson had sprained his ankle in his leap from the window. Neighbors aroused the family, having discovered the fire.

The Navel Orange.

The navel orange originated in Brazil and was introduced into the United States in 1870 by William Saunders, of the United States department of agriculture at Washington, D. C. It was distributed by him to the orange growing sections of the country and was often spoken of as the "Washington navel orange." Its peculiar formation, is due to the development of a secondary axis, with more or less cells, in the center of the fruit; the fact that it is practically seedless, combined with its sprightly flavor, has made this variety of orange popular, and it is largely grown in southern California and increasingly in Florida. The trees are propagated by cutting and by budding or grafting other stocks.

Big Heads and Wisdom.

Many clever men have big heads, but so have many imbeciles and imbeciles. The weight of the brain is a surer guide to its quality than the size of the head. Other things being equal, brain weight corresponds with intelligence. The average weight for a man is from 46 to 53 ounces—of a woman from 41 to 47 (a bitter fact for advocates of the superiority of the fairer sex). The heaviest human brains known were Dr. Abercrombie's, which was 62½ ounces, and Cuvier's, the great French naturalist, an ounce and a half heavier. It falls to the lot of but few geniuses, however, to have this test applied to them. The brain of a man, on the whole, is about one-fourth of the weight of his body; of a dog, but one hundred and twentieth. Only two kinds of animal, the whale and the elephant, have larger brains than man, but in both these the proportion to the weight of the body is greatly less.—Strand Magazine.

Use Glass Sounding Board.

Plate glass was used in the construction of a sounding board that has improved the acoustic properties of a Detroit church, according to Popular Mechanics magazine. Three panes of heavy glass are set in an oblong frame of steel, which is attached to a wooden pole by wires from its corners, and suspended over the pulpit by cables fastened at either end of the pole. The cables pass through pulleys on the ceiling, permitting the contrivance to be raised or lowered to suit different speakers or conditions.

The man who comes out of the cellar with a sad face has only been putting a shovel of expensive coal in the furnace.—Baltimore American.

What's Worth Giving-- Is Worth Giving Well

No other Gift Articles have the lasting and enduring quality of those that come from the Jewelry Store.

Diamonds, Pearls, Watches, Jewelry, Silverware, are of life-long endurance and retain their beauty forever. They also express more eloquently the sentiment, the love or friendship of the giver.

A "Jewelry Gift" is not necessarily an expensive one. While we have many articles whose prices are pretty high, we have hundreds at moderate prices, too, that fit the moderate purse and that satisfy the desire for beauty and durability.

SCOUT COMMITTEE PICKS LIST OF BOY'S BOOKS

In the hurry and scurry of buying for the Christmas season, little thought is given, usually, to the material enclosed in the cover of a boy's book selected as his Christmas present. That this is just as important as the price or the binding, most any one will concede. The library commission of the Boy Scouts of America has made up a list of the books that boys like best and that are regarded as wholesome for the youngsters. These books are obtainable at any bookstore and for the convenience of parents and others it is given in full herewith.

Hear it for yourself
-the phonograph which amazed all Newark

ARE you one of those who believe that no phonograph can match the voice of the living human? An astonishing discovery awaits you—like the thousand Licking Co. people who attended the Glen Ellison recital.

Thomas A. Edison gave his famous Tone-Test last Friday night in The High School Auditorium. He had Mr. Ellison sing in direct comparison with the RE-CREATION of his voice by the New Edison.* Music lovers were completely baffled. Their ears were unable to distinguish the RE-CREATED voice from the living. You have never heard any phonograph that approaches the New Edison. It RE-CREATES not only the musical notes, but every elusive quality of tone and color which identify the original artist.

The New Edison

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

Come in and hear the identical instrument* which was used Friday Evening. Make the great discovery for yourself.

*The instrument used in Friday's Tone-Test is the regular model which sells for $295.00 (in Canada $431). It is an exact duplicate of the Laboratory Model which Mr. Edison perfected after spending Three Million Dollars in experiments.

DISTILLERS SEEK LIQUOR MARKET

Supreme Court Decision Wipes Out Last Hope of Holders of 38 Million Gallons of Whiskey.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 16.—Watching one of their last remaining hopes for a brief "wet" spell go fluttering away by the decision yesterday of the federal supreme court upholding the war-time prohibition act, Kentucky distillers and former saloon proprietors today apparently were deeply troubled.

How to lawfully dispose of approximately 38,000,000 gallons of liquor, worth at wholesale, approximately $400,000,000, was a big question with them. While exportation is allowed until nationwide prohibition becomes effective January 16, 1920, a scarcity of ocean tonnage prevents exportation of all the Kentucky whiskey by that time, it was said distillers here professed to see no chance of President Wilson lifting the war time ban soon. Owners of more than 300 Louisville saloons had prepared to recommence sale of liquor, and distillers planned to ship thousands of gallons outside the state for sale, if the court held the war-time act illegal.

Elwood Hamilton, collector of internal revenue for Kentucky, and District Attorney W. V. Gregory, announced that prosecution of violators of the war-time act may be undertaken shortly. Those persons selling liquor under protection of injunctions stopped their sales yesterday immediately after the supreme court dissolved their injunction.

PROBE REPORTED 'LEAK' IN COURT

Washington Officials Seek Source of Advance Information on Decisions of United States Supreme Court.

Washington, Dec. 16.—Department of justice officials continued today their investigation of reports of alleged "leaks" on supreme court decisions, which were being used as tips for stock speculation.

A minor official of the department and an attaché of the supreme court were implicated in the charges but Captain Burke, chief of the bureau of investigation of the justice department declared that so far no basis for the charges has been discovered.

In a verbal statement last night, Captain Burke said that a "B. E. Moses" with offices in the Munsey buildings, Washington, had been reported by Martin Pew, manager of the International News Service, for an alleged attempt to secure financial backing from a friend of Pew to play the stock market on advance information of supreme court decisions.

"Moses told Pew's friend," Captain Burke said, "that he had been doing this for some time but he did not have sufficient funds to make the profit he might make if he had financial backing. The friend of Pew insisted that before he could get the finances which Moses desired, he would have to be convinced that advance information on the supreme court decision was absolutely obtainable."

TOWN IS QUIET AFTER LYNCHING

Negro Slayers Shot To Death By West Virginia Mob and Bodies Thrown Into River.

Huntington, W. Va., Dec. 16.—Reports received here early today from Chapmanville, Logan county, where two negroes were lynched by a mob late yesterday, indicated that quiet prevailed in the town and authorities expected no further disorders. No arrests in connection with the case had been made. The reports stated:

The lynching occurred on the banks of the Guyan River at Chapmanville where the two negroes, Ed Whitefield and Earl Hiner, charged with the murder of a white man, were taken from deputy sheriffs, shot to death and the bodies thrown into the stream. Whitefield's body was recovered last night and authorities were dragging the river today in an effort to find Whitefield's body.

BERKMAN AND GANG TO LEAVE THIS WEEK

New York, Dec. 16.—The United States transport Beaufort, now loading supplies in Brooklyn, is to be the "ark" to carry back to Russia the Ellis Island radical colony, consisting of Emma Goldman, Alexander Berkman and some 50 other Russians awaiting deportation. The vessel is scheduled to leave this week, with a Norwegian port its first call.

Men and women with hands manacled and wearing shoulder bands, bearing appeals for the release of all "political prisoners," will march up Fifth avenue singly on Christmas morning in a silent protest demonstration, according to plans announced by a New York radical organization.

An airplane engine with twelve cylinders has been invented which makes more than 2,000 revolutions a minute.

AUDITORIUM.

"My Sweetie."

Max Bloom in "My Sweetie" at the Auditorium tonight is the cleverest and most pretentious vehicle in the way of a musical revue that Mr. Bloom has ever appeared in, and gives this popular comedian an opportunity to be on stage constantly and assuredly laughs than all the preceding musical comedies and revues that have made Mr. Bloom famous.

"My Sweetie" is the latest Boyle Woolfolk musical revue, book by John P. Mulgrew and music composed by Felix G. Rice, composer of "Honey Moon Town" and produced under Mr. Woolfolk's personal direction.

Twelve complete scenes, all newly dressed, with a wealth of colors and new costumes, in fact, Mr. Woolfolk's latest, biggest and best effort.

Max Bloom as an entertainer is too well known to need any words of praise in advance of his coming and has without doubt, appeared before more people in his career and personally met more of his admirers than any comedian who has ever appeared in this city. He will be supported by Alice Sher, Myrtle De Roy, and a big company of favorites and sixteen of the handsomest, youngest sweeties who dance, sing and help make up the best musical revue of the season. Seats are now selling.

"Back to God's Country."

Twenty-five California towns, and especially the sheriff of each countryside, were thrown into a state of turmoil recently when the great annual aggregation which was brought together for the filming of "Back to God's Country," adapted from the magazine story, "Wapi the Walrus," by James Oliver Curwood and which will be shown at the Auditorium theater commencing tomorrow, was seen travelling through the villages.

Mistaking the production forces of the Curwood Carver company for a mammoth travelling circus, many sheriffs demanded that they be shown exhibition permits which are necessary in that state. When James Oliver Curwood, probably the best known writer of animal stories in America, attempted to convince them that the large company was a motion picture outfit his explanations were frequently met by scoffs.

Several dozen animals, with bears and tigers in non-baited cages, all but convinced the natives that the procession while en route to location for scenes in "Back to God's Country," was really a circus trying to evade attention. The showing is for four days.

Entertain Employees.

Several theater parties will be given this evening at the Auditorium. The Station Beggs Co. will take 25 of their salesmen and the Boston Store will entertain 25 of their clerks. The attraction is Max Bloom in "My Sweetie." A lot of fun is promised for some local jokes are liable to be offered by Mr. Bloom.

ALHAMBRA.

"His Bridal Night."

Alice Brady the popular and charming star, who has gained the reputation of permitting no one to "double" for her, will be seen in a dual role in her latest Select Picture, "His Bridal Night," a racing, colloquial farce, which is seen tonight at the Alhambra. "His Bridal Night" is the story of twins Vi and Tiny. Miss Brady, with her charming grace and manner and adaptability, gives a delightful characterization of the twins. In the role of Tiny she is demure, thoughtful, conscientious and a bit goody-goody. But as Vi she is vivacious, headstrong, mischievous, daring, lovable and a bundle of fun. Miss Brady's grace and beauty, a distinct personality of her own. They are twins in age and personal appearance only, but not in disposition.

"Vagabond Luck."

William Fox's co-stars, Albert Ray and Elinor Fair, will appear together in their newest attraction, "Vagabond Luck," at the Alhambra Wednesday and Thursday. The picture tells of a race horse, Vagabond, who is supposed to have outlived its days of usefulness, but which comes forward very much in the racing Vagabond is owned by Joy Bell and her brother Harry.

"Vagabond Luck" concerns because of its simplicity and humanity. It is rich in heart interest and sympathetic appeal and it tells a story in a straightforward way. Particularly as sympathy expressed for the broken down horse, Vagabond, who is supposed to have outlived its usefulness on the track. Fortunately it rained and he breezes home a winner because he is the best muddler on the track.

"Lord and Lady Algy."

Tom Moore is following in the footsteps of one of the world's greatest actors. His newest Goldwyn picture, "Lord and Lady Algy" which will be shown at the Alhambra theater beginning Friday, is the picture of the play of the same name which served Wm. Paversham as a starring vehicle for several of his American tours. The story is a dramatic comedy by R. C. Ours and directed on the screen by Harry Beaumont. It though the story does not preach the tale of battling the tragic moments are brought about by Lord Algy's loss of his entire fortune on the running of the famous English Derby. Al though he had promised his wife not to bet any more, the temptation to back his favorite race was too great, and the young Lord wagered everything he owned. As a consequence, a coolness sprang up between the young couple which was further chilled by the intrigues of the young Lord's mother. However, Lady Algy managed to save her husband from financial disgrace and patch up their differences.

Anita Stewart.

Railroad men are different though the nature of their employment than other men. Such is one of the big conclusions suggested in "The Wreck," picture, "The Wreck" which will appear at the Grand theater tonight and tomorrow.

Whereas other classes of workers might drink and become intoxicated without very great consequences, others it is shown in this film that when a railroad engineer does so, he puts in jeopardy the lives of many other human beings.

"The Wreck" is very largely a railroad story, although much of its action is set in drawing room surroundings. Anita Stewart is the star, supported by an all-star cast, including Harry T. Morey.

The comedy feature is "Trial by Jury," presented by the Sunbeam Co.

LYRIC.

GEM

"Snares of Paris."

"Snares of Paris," a new Fox photoplay, promises some sure enough thrills when it is shown next Wednesday at the Gem theater. Among them is said to be an exact reproduction of a Latin quarter den, with an example of the degradation wrought by slavery to abstinence: the attempted theft of an international treaty by a spy, and a beautiful and loved wife's confession to her husband of her heart's secret of twenty years.

MADLAINE TRAVERSE

The climax of the story is described as unusual and beautiful, and the star—who is Madlaine Traverse—is said to have achieved a genuine triumph.

Refused to Operate on Baby.

The Gem theater will have as a special attraction next Thursday and Friday a powerful photoplay feature, "ARE YOU FIT TO MARRY?" This picture is founded upon the greatest problems and realities of life. Why some children are always bubbling over with health, strength and the joy of living, while others are puny, weak and ill-tempered is clearly explained in this marvelous production. There is no mawkish sentimentality, no dragging in of unsavory scenes to pander to low taste, but a clean, wholesome presentation of facts that teach the inevitable lesson. Driven home with the cold steel of truth. This picture is most interesting and should be seen by every grown child and adult—not alone from a standpoint of amusement, but for their own personal welfare. Bring your sons and daughters; it will do them good. The film has been produced by Dr. Harry J. Haiselden of Chicago, and the plot is based on the Bollinger baby case, which recently caused a worldwide sensation through Dr. Haiselden's refusal to operate on the deformed baby.

This production has been arranged in a most refined manner, and in spite of the delicate subject with which it deals, there is positively nothing in it to offend anyone of either sex; but in order to avoid possible embarrassment, it will be shown to separate audiences only, and no children will be admitted. The performances will be as follows: women only 12:00 to 11:00 p.m., Thursday; 12 to 7 p.m., Friday; men only Friday night 8 to 11 p.m.

The Happy Ending.

"Marguerite, can you cook?" "No, Percival, can you afford to keep a limousine?" "No, dear." So they did not marry and they lived happily ever afterward.

Ineffective Mollering.

"De man dat hollers about his bein' jes' as good as any other man," said Uncle Eben, "mos' generally ain't doin' enough useful work to prove his argument."

Looms for Invalids.

Interesting specimens of weaving are made on very small and simple looms, which may be attached to the frame of the bed for use by invalids.

What a pity she doesn't know Resinol Soap would improve her complexion

Remarks like the above are passed about many girls whose appearance would be most attractive were it not for a poor skin. RESINOL SOAP is just what such girls need to help in overcoming their complexion difficulties. It does more than remove dirt—it gets right after those clogged pores, and excessive oiliness, and it benefits the skin cells. When a little Resinol Ointment is used in connection with Resinol Soap, relief is hastened, and unless the trouble is due to some internal disorder, the complexion is usually cleared in a short time.

RESINOL SHAVING STICK is very popular with men who like the way the Resinol in it soothes the face.

Resinol products at all druggists.

A Woman's Message to Women:

"When I received your generous offer of a sample of Mrs. Sumner's Ointment, I had spent hundreds of dollars seeking health, before I overcame my prejudice to advertised medicines and tried your remedy. I was just at the point of having an operation, as I was in terrible shape from not having proper care after confinement. I ordered six boxes of your treatment, and today I am a well woman, can do my work and enjoy myself. Words cannot express my gratitude. Use my letter wherever you wish, as I am convinced there is nothing in the world like the Ointment treatment." MRS. T. G. CARTER, 509 Russell Ave., CINCINNATI, OHIO.

Only a Woman Knows a Woman's Trials and Understands Her Best of Sympathy and Help. That is why hundreds of women gladly testify to the value of Mrs. Sumner's Ointment. Send for a FREE TEN DAYS' TREATMENT with illustrated descriptive copy of "Women's Own Medical Adviser." Test Mrs. Sumner's Ointment for yourself, at about 12c a week. For twenty-five years women reported it satisfactory, and often reported it as a real tonic and comfort. Used by old and young and does not interfere with dress. Write in confidence, as your letter is opened, read and answered by a woman. For the Free Trial, Address, THE SUMMERS MEDICAL CO., Women's Dept. O, South Bend, Ind. Quit Laxatives, Purges; Try NR

NR Tonight—Tomorrow Feel Right

It is a mistake to continually dose yourself with so-called laxative pills, calomel, oil, purges and cathartics and force bowel action. It weakens the bowels and liver and makes constant dosing necessary.

Why don't you begin right today to overcome your constipation and get your system in such shape that daily purging will be unnecessary? You can do so if you get a 25c box of Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) and take one each night for a week or so. NR Tablets do much more than merely cause pleasant easy bowel action. This medicine acts upon the digestive as well as the eliminative organs—promotes good digestion, causes the body to get the nourishment from all the food you eat, gives you a good, hearty appetite, strengthens the liver, overcomes biliousness, regulates kidney and bowel action and gives the whole body a thorough cleansing out. This accomplished you will not have to take medicine every day. An occasional NR tablet will keep your body in condition and you can always feel your best.

Try Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) and prove this. It is the best home medicine that you can use and costs only 25c per box, containing enough to last twenty-five days. Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) is sold guaranteed and recommended by your druggist.

OBITUARY

Infant's Death.
Burial of the two-day-old infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Christofferson, who died this morning at the City Hospital, was made this afternoon in Cedar Hill cemetery.

Wilma Colling.
Funeral services for Wilma Colling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Colling, Jr., who died this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the home in Wing street and burial took place in Cedar Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Martha Vanasdale.
The funeral of Mrs. Martha Vanasdale, who was found dead in bed Monday morning, will take place Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 in the home in Hebron. Rev. M. J. Carter will officiate and burial will be made in Hebron cemetery.

Infant's Death.
Funeral services for the three day old infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilkin of Eden township, who died Monday night were held this afternoon and burial was made in Eden cemetery.

Miss Catherine Hayes.
Miss Catherine Hayes, the 15-year old daughter of Mrs. Hattie Williams of Utica, died this morning at 4:40 o'clock at the City Hospital. Death followed an operation Monday morning for strangulation of the bowels but the trouble was due to long standing. Surviving are the mother and step father, a twin sister Josephine, a brother Oliver and half brother and a half sister. She was a member of the Freshman class of the Utica High school. The body was taken in charge by L. N. Bradley and taken to the home in Cary street in Utica. Funeral arrangements have been made.

Mrs. Minnie Appley.
Mrs. Minnie Appley, born in Livingston Manor, New York, in 1868 died December 13, 1919, aged 51 years, and 5 days. Her husband, Wm. P. Rose, died 19 years ago, her mother resides in this city.

In the year 1890 the deceased was united in marriage to Wm. M. Appley, a resident of New York state. The couple removed to South Dakota and a daughter, Julian Grayce was born there. In 1905 they came to Newark, Ohio, to make their home and Mr. Appley will be well remembered here as a contractor of painting and decorating.

Five years ago Mr. Appley's health failed and he sought help in the climate of New Mexico, but the attempt failed and he died two months after his arrival there. The wife and daughter, who accompanied him to the southwest, made their home in New Mexico for some time and in 1907 Julian Grayce was married to Edgar W. Scheer, a native of the state. In 1918 the three came to Newark and have since made their home in this city.

Mrs. Appley was one of a family of eight, only two of whom survive here, James E. Rose of Tacoma, Wash., and Ada M. Rose of this city. Possessed of an endearing personality, an unbounded love of beauty, harmony and justice, the influence of her brave, unquenchable spirit will remain long in the hearts of those who knew her best.

He Stoops to Conquer.
"Gee, but it's late. Will your wife get up and let you in when you get home?"

"I'll make her. I'll scratch on the door and whine and she'll think the dogs been let out."—St. Louis Republic.

Chicago Grain Review.
Chicago, Dec. 13.—Fresh strength which developed in the corn market today, was ascribed chiefly to lightness of receipts and indications that it would take several weeks for railroads to move sufficient corn to prove a burden on values. After opening unchanged to 1/2¢ higher, with Jan. 1.30@1.35 and May 1.25@1.30, corn scored a material gain all around.
Oats were in good demand, principally from speculators. Opening figures which ranged from the same as yesterday's finish to 3/8¢ higher, including May at $1.40@1.45, were followed by a moderate general advance.
Provisions rose with hogs and grain. The bulk of the trade was in lard.

Chicago Produce.
Chicago, Dec. 13.—Butter: receipts 4636; unchanged.

Wall Street.
New York, Dec. 13.—Irregular changes at the opening of today's stock market reflected the further divergent views of traders. Motors, oils and steels featured the stronger issues with a sprinkling of shippings and qualities at gains of 1 to 2 points. Rails were an uncertain factor, some of the secondary issues rising from a fraction to a point, while investment shares notably Pacifics and conifers were lower by 1 to 2 points. The general list hardened within the first half hour, however, on the strength shown by Cruible and Republic steels and Baldwin and American locomotives.

Technical conditions and other developments of the morning, including the more stable exchange market and the 7 per cent rate for call money were helpful to the constructive side. The small supply of popular issues, especially motors and oils, made further substantial gains possible. General Motors rose 3/4 points. Prominent steels and equipments rose 2 to 6 points.

Chicago Grain Closing.
Chicago, Dec. 13.—Corn: Dec. $1.44; Jan. $1.38 5/8; May, $1.34 7/8. Oats: Dec. $1.75; May, $1.75. Pork: Jan., $38.85; May, $35.25. Lard: Jan., $23.45; May, $24. Ribs: Jan., $18.70; May, $19.25.

Then Died Happy.
A friend carried to Durkin the intelligence that "Uncle Char" wanted to see him before he died. But Durkin was reluctant to go. Age had not withered nor had time rendered stale his infinite contempt and scorn for his adversary. But softened speech and pleading tongue finally won him over. And so he laboriously climbed the hill to "Uncle Char's" home and was ushered into the death chamber. Then he said to the wasted form outlined beneath the coverlet: "I'm here, you blankety, blank, blank, blank; what in blankety, blank, blank do you want of me?" "Uncle Char's" fading eyes lighted. The ghost of a smile chased itself over his wan features. "He knows me; he knows me," the dying man squeaked. And then he turned his face to the wall and went to meet his Maker.

Strangers Prepared For.
"Does this dog growl?" asked the lady at the dog deniers. "Oh, yes, m'm," was the answer. "Well, I want a dog that doesn't growl." "Don't you want something that will growl when strangers come around?" "No. My husband will attend to that."

Concentration of Mind.
The brain of the average person is too receptive and not positive enough. It is swayed by every gust of emotion, yields too easily to outside conditions. It reproduces too easily the idle thoughts of others, or its own phantasies, and avoids the effort of constructive thinking. A complete change in the mental habits of such a person may open the way for unlimited future development. Mental efficiency can only be attained when one possesses the power of concentrating the mind. Weak powers of concentration mean inefficient thinking and vacillating action. Regular daily practice in concentration, upon some one subject, some difficult problem, will soon give the mind the habit of constructive thinking. Persist in this practice and ignore all seeming lack of progress if you would obtain the fullest results.—Nautilus.

Blunder Over Blunder.
It is a dangerous thing when you have let slip an unfortunate remark to try to cover up the blunder. Mrs. G. was talking with the wife of Judge H. about her son's choice of a profession. "I don't want him to be a lawyer," she said. "Why not?" asked the judge's wife. "I think there is nothing much finer than the legal profession for a bright boy." "Well," said Mrs. G. bluntness, "a lawyer has to tell so many lies." Then it dawned on her that she was talking to the wife of a lawyer, so she hastily added: "That is—er—to be a good lawyer."—Youth's Companion.

How Cruel.

Franks of Nature.
A cat that barked like a dog, recently exhibited at Boston, tops the list of numerous freaks discovered in this country. Recently, says the Detroit Free Press, a giant glow worm 4 1/2 inches long, was found in the Santa Cruz mountains. When placed in the dark a gorgeous effect was produced by the luminous rings circling its body. Manmoot fruit is of frequent occurrence, but in Southlake, Bath, England, a shocking case of a plant overeating was discovered. It resulted in seven daisies growing on one stalk. This freak, scientists said, was caused by fascination, which means overeating. White blackbirds, canaries, linnets and sparrows have been seen and exhibited. The ocean, too, gives its share of curious freaks. A double-sided flounder, with both sides alike, duplicate fins and a misplaced eye, was caught some months ago.

Col. Wilson Still Lives.
Col. E. S. Wilson, editor of The Ohio State Journal, who is fatally ill, was somewhat weaker last night and those in attendance believe his remarkable vitality is nearly spent. He is still conscious and talks clearly with members of his family.

From Jane Buckland.
Mr. Jane Buckland, Belen, New Mexico, writes: "Enclosed find check for another year of Advocate. I am pleased to note the extra Granville news and wish to thank you for the prompt service you are rendering me out here in the land of Douglas Fairbanks and cactus. Wishing you and your readers a Merry Christmas and a Prosperous New Year."
No Damage From Fire.
The East Newark company and the squad wagon were called to the P. A.
Drum home in Eastern avenue this morning. A fire hole cut in the cellar had some paper stuffed in it and the paper and soot ignited. There was no damage.

Returns With Prisoner.
An Officer in uniform returned from Canton last night with Harry Richardson who is wanted on two charges of forgery.
Richardson has been employed in Canton.

Christmas Greens Arrive.
Shipments of southern smilax, boxwood and ground pine for Christmas decorations were received by Newark dealers today.

Birth Announcement.
Announcement is made by Mr. and
Mrs. Charles Daniels of 373 North
Eleventh street of the birth of a daughter.
Epidemic of Mumps.
There is an epidemic of mumps among the children of the city. In many instances two or three children in the same family are ill.

Holly Shipments Delayed.
Shipments of holly which have been expected in the city for two weeks have been held up on account of floods in the South and are looked for daily.

NEED COLD WEATHER TO MAKE PERFECT ICE RINK

If the weather man will but co-operate now, the plans are all laid for the big artificial skating rink at the White Athletic field.

The city council last night voted on and passed a resolution authorizing the service director to use the pumping engine and men of the fire station to flood the field. It is planned to flood the field following a fall of snow. The snow will be pumped around the lake.
A thin coating of ice will be allowed to freeze and then the lake will be flooded making an excellent foundation for skating.

THREE AGE TRUCKS TO BE SHOWN IN EAST

Three trucks made by the American Motor Truck company, left this morning to go overland to New York City where they will be exhibited at the New York auto show held there January 2 to 10.

Two of the trucks are the 1 1/2 and 3-ton capacity, one being equipped with a stake bed and the other a bare chassis. The third is 1 1/2-ton with body and equipped with pneumatic tires. Otto Ramey is in charge of the trip and the drivers expect to make from 175 to 200 miles a day.

Following the New York show the trucks will be exhibited at the Chicago auto show.

FEWER TRAINS MAKE
EARLY MAILING WISE

Warning that the coal shortage and the curtailment of train service which resulted from the fuel famine, probably will result in a congestion of Christmas mail traffic, was issued today by the Newark post office on orders from the department at Washington.

The warning urged patrons of the office to mail their packages early, pointing out that the curtailment of railroad service made early mailing all the more necessary this year. The suggestion that packages be packed and mailed securely was included in the notice.

and A. A. Love, steel strikers, organized, and 71 members of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, charged with holding a meeting without a permit, opened today before Mayor T. J. McVey of East Youngstown.

A men were arrested last week at the meeting which they say was the regular session of their amalgamated club, called to elect officers. The raid was made under an emergency ordinance passed since the strike began by the East Youngstown council.

ment at the Woods and Hill pool rooms
Wednesday night and Monday night.
It was announced today. The two players will meet tomorrow night at Jack Woods' place and on Monday night at Hill's place.

NEWARK BOY HELPS TO CLEAR MINE BARRAGE

A mine barrage of 70,000 mines, each loaded with 550 pounds of TNT, placed 20 feet apart from the coast of Scotland to the Coast of Norway, was a part of the labor performed by the United States Navy, according to W.
E. Kirk, fireman, first class, of the U.
S. S. Rath, who visited the navy recruiting station, 8 West Main street, yesterday. Kirk has just returned from service abroad, having assisted the mine sweepers in removing the barrage.

The fleet, which returned recently, consisted of 36 minesweepers and 21
sub-chasers.
Kirk declares that the mines were so arranged that if a ship had been on a boat or other vessel to touch one of the mines to set it off. A close approach to the deadly mine was all that was necessary. It took a mighty slim u-boat to get through that barrage," Kirk declared.

It took five months to lay the barrage, the largest in the history of naval warfare and more than six months to remove it, Kirk said.

WAR TROPHIES COMING
WITH RECRUITING PARTY

An army truck and recruiting party consisting of Hospital Sergeant Frank J. Mamel, Privates Kelly and Bennett, all of the medical department, will arrive here tomorrow for a stay of several days. They have been enroute since December 6 from Columbus, with Newark as their destination. They have made stops at Westerville, Cen-terburg, Mt. Vernon, Fredericktown, and Utica.

They will have on display with the truck a few war trophies, among which is a German machine gun, captured at the Argonne by Americans, a German rifle and bayonet, German iron crosses, etc.

Sergeant Barlow of the local army recruiting station joined the party at Mt. Vernon and has been with them since December 10, as they have been operating in his territory. The party has accepted several men, mostly one-year enlistments, for the medical department.

The party is accepting men for all branches of the service but is making special efforts to secure men for one-year enlistments in the medical department.

They will put up at the Sherwood Hotel and the headquarters will be at army recruiting office at the postoffice building. The truck with the war trophies will be exhibited on the public square.

Justice of the Peace D. M. Jones.

AN INTERESTING
STORY NOW TOLD
BY NEWARK MAN.

Is Kept Busy Telling His Friends How
He Got Rid of a Severe Case of Stomach Trouble and Constipation.

SICK SINCE 1917.

States That Two Bottles of the New Medicine Drego Have Done Him
a Great Amount of Good.

"I am busy these days telling my friends what it is that makes me look so much better and feel like myself again," says Mr. George Angloff of Newark, O.

"My stomach has bothered me very much since back in 1917; seemed like everything I ate disagreed with me, and I soon realized I was eating my first one thing and then another, because it did not agree with me. I grew thin, weak and pale, and was the picture of a genuine dyspeptic. My bowels were also badly constipated, and my liver was inactive, which kept me continually taking physic."

"I've now finished taking the second bottle of Drego and my condition shows a remarkable improvement. I can eat many things, which I have denied myself of many times, without hurting me afterwards. My color is better, have more strength and feel good all the time. I get good rest at night. My bowels act regularly every day, without the assistance of other medicines. Drego surely has proven itself a wonderful medicine in my case."

"Drego is a combination of natuferent medicinal herbs, plants, that act directly upon the liver, kidneys, stomach, bladder and the blood. It neutralizes the poisons of the system, and causes the organs to take on new life and energy, and rebuild the body.
Nothing has a quicker or more positive effect in relieving headaches, constipation, neuralgia, biliousness, nervousness, poor appetite, loss of strength, poor blood, and the other ailments of catarrh, gas on the stomach and rheumatism. Drego does not contain potash, mercury, or any other harmful mineral."

All good druggists now sell Drego and it is highly recommended in Newark by Evans' Out-Rate Drug Store.

DON'T LOSE
YOUR TEETH FROM
RIGGS DISEASE

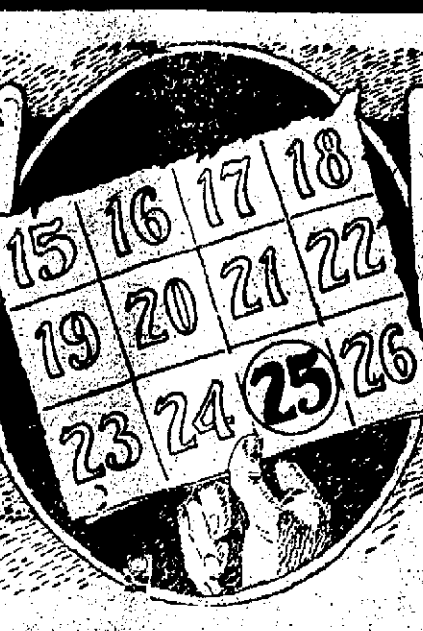

Make Sore, Inflamed, Bleeding
Gums Healthy and Teeth Tight
With This New Prescription—Instant Relief.

If you have Pyorrhea or Riggs Disease and your teeth are loosening or if your gums are receding or are sore and tender, inflamed or bleeding, spongy or flabby or if the discharge pus, do not give up in despair and decide that you must have your teeth pulled and wear a set of false teeth all your life.

A prominent New York dentist has discovered a new preventive—Epithol—which works wonders in just such cases and it is sold here in one-ounce bottles by T. J. Evans and other leading druggists on an absolutely guarantee that unless it cures your trouble and makes your gums sound and healthy and teeth tight, the money you paid for it will be refunded.

People who have used Epithol say its action is wonderful. Glen Suter says:
"My gums were sore and badly inflamed. I used Epithol a short time and all soreness has disappeared and my gums are healthy and well." Epithol works quickly. Its promptness, clearness, better by the daily use of Epithol Soap, medicated with Poslam.

ALBERT FAULEY ARTIST, IS DEAD

Well Known Painter of Granville and Columbus Dies at His Home—Painted Much in Granville.

Granville, Dec. 14.—Albert C. Fauley, portrait and landscape painter, is dead at his home in Columbus. He made Granville and the Pen and National and was well known here. He has been ill for some time.

For many years Mr. Fauley was instructor of life classes at the Columbus Art school, and was a teacher of many of the present generation of local artists. He was born at Fultonham about 60 years ago and studied in Philadelphia, Chicago and Paris. For many years he maintained a studio at Rockport, Mass., but of late years had done most of his painting in and around Columbus and Granville.

He was a member of the Society of Western Artists, the League of Columbus Artists and the Pen and National Academy at New York, the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts and the Corcoran Gallery at Washington.

During the incumbency of Governor McKinley, Campbell and Bush, Mr. Fauley painted their official portraits for the state.

His widow, Mrs. Lucy S. Fauley, also an artist, survives.

Funeral services will be held at Fultonham tomorrow.

The annual football banquet given in Shepley commons Monday evening at 7 o'clock was marked by the entire absence of ceremony, of women in dress suits, and even of collars. The dining hall was taxed to capacity in the seating arrangements. The "eats" were as unconventional as the dress, and the after dinner speech was full of pep and spirit. Theodore Johnson, graduate manager presided. George McConaughy gave a talk entitled "N Everything," and there were rousing speeches from Professors Williams, Coons, Ebaugh, and Director Livingston. A speech from the retiring captain, Meredith, and one from the incoming captain, L. G. Hollinger. Beta Theta Pi, a talk from Plummer, the team manager, and farewells from each of the senior members of the team.

The Travelers' met on Monday afternoon and discussed two papers, the first on "Albania," prepared and read by Mrs. Mary Nichol Jones, which gave a good account of the little country lying across from the "heel of Italy," and of its wild, rugged, clanish inhabitants, said to be descendants of the original stock that first inhabited Europe. Mrs. William Howe spoke at some length on the "Great Auxiliaries," mentioning particular the Red Cross, the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the Salvation Army and the splendid army service rendered by each. Nominations for the coming election of officers were made by ballot—and these candidates will be voted on at the next meeting.

Miss Viola McDonald of Louisville, Ky., will arrive on Thursday as one of the week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ray on the Newark road. Marie Smith of Chicago also will be one of the house party, all of whom will attend the Beta party Thursday evening.

W. H. Johnson of New York City, associate editor of "The Review," former professor of Latin in Denison, visited in Granville Monday, calling on friends, taking dinner with his sister, Miss Harriett Johnson, and leaving for New York at 9 o'clock. He was just from the bedside of his younger son, Alfred, who is rapidly recovering from a serious attack of pneumonia in the Miami hospital in Dayton.

Mrs. C. W. Chamberlain, who spent last week with her mother, Mrs. Husted at the home of her sister, Mrs. Lee Cotter, in Mansfield, has returned home.

E. A. Smoots has been in Pittsburgh for a few days on business.

Mrs. R. P. McCutcheon has returned from a week-end visit with friends in Columbus.

DRIVER SAVES SUGAR WHEN TRUCK BURNS

The East Newark fire company and the squad wagon from Central station were called to South Cedar street last evening at 4:45 o'clock, where a motor delivery truck of the Fleek wholesale grocery had caught fire. Before it could be extinguished it was almost completely ruined. The driver stated that the line shaft broke, bursting the gasoline tank and setting fire to the truck. He removed a barrel and a number of sacks of sugar as well as other groceries. The loss to the firm will be several hundred dollars.

1300 BRITISH TROOPS REPORTED WIPED OUT

London, Dec. 14.—Thirteen hundred British troops in Persia have been wiped out by the hostile population, it is claimed in a Moscow wireless message reaching here today. The troops, the dispatch says, comprised the garrison of the town of Meshed (positioned in northeastern Persia, north-west of Herat, Afghanistan.)

FAR-SIGHT

IS the commonest of all errors of vision. In young people it is liable to be overlooked, which results in eye strain, causing lack of interest in school work, and in some instances in wilful disobedience. Parents should give this subject some thought, and if there is any reason to suspect that their children have not normal sight, they should interview us.
